Camden Little League Park RECYCLE DELAWARE Center to Close

The RECYCLE DELAWARE center located at the Camden Little League Park will be closing in the next few weeks at the request of the property owner. Delaware Solid Waste Authority (DSWA) has over 140 RECYCLE DELAWARE centers throughout the state, placed through voluntary sponsorships by schools, businesses, and shopping centers.

Other nearby RECYCLE DELAWARE sites remain available to the public. In Camden, a center at the Shore Stop on 2236 S. State Street and Sorghum Mill Rd across from the Allen Frear School is available. A RECYCLE DELAWARE center at the DSWA Administrative Offices at 1128 S. Bradford Street in Dover is nearby, as is the center at the Blue Hen Corporate Center in Dover, located on Bay Road.

As an alternative, DSWA also offers voluntary Curbside Recycling to all residents of Delaware. For $6 per month, residents receive weekly curbside pick-up of the same recyclables as the drop off locations. For information on this or any other DSWA program, call the Citizens' Response Line at 1-800-404-7080.
