Delaware Solid Waste Authority to Hold Grand Opening of New Facility

Please join the Delaware Solid Waste Authority (DSWA) on Saturday, October 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. as it celebrates the Grand Opening of its newest facility, the Mercantile Recycling Store! Activities will be held from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The Mercantile Recycling Store sells usable items rescued from DSWA collection facilities throughout the state, diverting these items from landfills and thereby conserving valuable landfill space. "DSWA is very pleased to have the Mercantile up and running for business. This is another new and exciting recycling program DSWA has implemented for the people of Delaware," says Rich Von Stetten, Senior Manager of Statewide Recycling. Building materials, computers, furniture, and toys are among the treasures you will find at this year-round indoor yard sale. Mercantile Recycling Store Supervisor Charles "Chuck" Gough says, "If you enjoy finding a great bargain or simply like to shop, then the Mercantile Recycling Store is for you! Please join us at our Grand Opening for an afternoon of food, fun and unbeatable prices!" The Grand Opening will feature free hot dogs and sodas for the first 500 attendees, a moon bounce for children to enjoy, and a live radio remote broadcast by WSTW!

DSWA's Mercantile Recycling Store is located on the grounds of the Delaware Recycling Center at 1101 Lambson's Lane in New Castle. The store is open Monday-Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For more information about this or other DSWA programs, call the CITIZENS' RESPONSE LINE at 1-800-404-7080.
